

STUDENT

GRANTS

for projects in
Emerging Markets

The Center for Emerging Markets invites students to conduct research, organize a conference, create a startup, participate in a service project, or pursue innovative projects that address pressing problems in emerging markets.

Emerging markets include all countries of the world except industrialized nations such as the United States, Canada, Western Europe, Singapore, Japan, Australia and New Zealand.

What you need to know.

Awards & Dates

- Awards: $1,000 to $3,000 per individual or team
- Submission deadline: March 31, 2023 (Rolling basis)
- Decision date: May 5, 2023

Eligibility

- Projects should be completed by December 31, 2024
- Applicants must be enrolled in full-time programs at Northeastern University at least until May 2024 or the duration of the project (Which ever occurs first).

Application Process

Students, working alone or in teams, should submit a 2-page proposal that covers the following:

1. Aims of the project
2. How and why the project will benefit emerging markets
3. Qualifications of the team to carry out the project
4. Additional support that the project has or may receive
5. Budget, with justification for key cost components
6. Timeline for completion of the project

For more information visit,
WWW.BIT.LY/STUDENTGRANTCEM

