About RISE 2023

- In-person event with a virtual poster gallery for those not in Boston
- Live poster session, Thursday, April 13, 2023
 - 1:30 PM – 4:30 PM ET in Matthews Arena
- Make a poster to share in-person with students, staff and faculty, community members, and honored guests
- No judging this year, intellectual connection, interdisciplinary conversation
- You can only be the primary presenter for one project if you're presenting live; can only be present at one time in one place.

What can be presented at RISE?

- Projects you worked on/completed during the last year, from April 15 of 2022 onward.
- Research, creative endeavor – broad array, check out our website to see wide range of what what presented.
- On-campus and off-campus, on co-op, through internships, or simply on your own. (Just check with mentors that it is okay to present your work at RISE.)
- Projects don't need to be complete but there should be substantial work already done. Not a project proposal!
- You can only be the primary presenter on one project.

Getting Started: Submit an Abstract

- To present at RISE, you need to submit a brief abstract for review.
- Abstracts are due February 22.
- Once approved, we'll share our Poster Template and a link to our Poster gallery. You'll create your poster, upload it to the gallery, and we will have it printed. Don't worry, we'll share instructions.
- March 22, 2023: Posters due.
- April 13, 2022: RISE Expo.

What's an Abstract?

- A brief summary of your project, no more than 100-words.
- Written for an educated, but non-specialist audience.
 - Question: Tells us what question or challenge you were trying to understand, explore, investigate.
 - Significance: Shares with us why this matters – or should matter to – within your area of inquiry and to those who are NOT experts in your field.
 - Methods and Conclusions: Gives us some insight into what you did and what you learned.
- This is very brief – you are trying to get folks excited.
- Write in plain English and be sure to proofread.

Don't include title in abstract (separate field for it).

No references, tables, citations, or acknowledgements.

A SINGLE PARAGRAPH.

Submitting Your Abstract

Register on abstract system using your official Northeastern University email. They'll send a confirmation email to that address. Confirm and begin.

- Only one abstract per project.
- You can only submit two abstracts as an individual.
 - If submit two abstracts, must present one of the projects in the virtual gallery.
- Do NOT list faculty members, post-docs as project members – there is a separate section for a primary mentor information.

Presenter Information

You'll need following information about your and your project members:

- Remember, only students can be presenters
- First Name, Last Name
- Official Northeastern University E-mail
- Anticipated Graduation Year
- College
- Major

You can add as many as ten additional student presenters.

Abstracts that list faculty members or post-docs as co-presenters will not be forwarded for presentation at RISE.

RISE 2023: Abstract Submission

Deadline - Wednesday, 22nd February, 2023

Please enter your abstract information. RISE is a student event -- so please do not include faculty members or external mentors as presenters. We have a separate section for a primary mentor.

Submissions are currently closed so submitters will be unable to see this form. However administrators can still create submissions

Presenter information and affiliations*

Please enter STUDENT PRESENTER information here -- DO NOT include information related to mentors, staff or post-docs. RISE is a venue for the presentation of student work. A later section asks you to share relevant information about your project's primary mentor.

You MUST enter the names of ALL presenters here -- including yourself if you are a presenter -- in the order in which you wish them to appear in the printed text. Names omitted here will NOT be printed in the presenter index or the final program.

In addition to the primary presenter (the first entered), there can be up to 10 additional student presenters. Given space constraints in the event venue, we request that no more than 3 presenters stand by your poster to answer questions at any one time during the live event if your abstract is accepted.

Primary Mentor Information

This is where you share information on the person who is considered the primary mentor of your project.

You'll need to share:

- Their location – at Northeastern, elsewhere, or they do not exist (very rare)
- We'll want to know their name, email, department or institutional affiliation.
- Do not include titles or honorifics in your entry such as Professor, etc. Simply list their first and last names.
- You can acknowledge additional mentors during your poster presentation – we are not collecting it in the abstract submission form.

Primary Mentor Information

For the purpose's of RISE, we ask that you identify a primary project mentor (though many people may have served as mentors).

You can acknowledge other mentors within your RISE poster should your abstract be accepted.

If your project was conducted entirely independently, please indicate that below.

Is this project's Primary Faculty Advisor, Mentor, or Investigator (PI) at Northeastern or outside Northeastern?*

Please share with us information about your project's primary mentor. This cannot be a fellow student.

If you are working in a laboratory, please do not list your graduate student mentor, but the name of the faculty member whose lab you are working in.

Final Permissions and Presentation Affirmation (read-only)

Permission to publish*

Check this box to give us permission to publish your abstract on electronic media and in hardcopy if it is accepted for presentation.

Presenter approval*

I confirm that this submission has been approved by all presenters.

In-person RISE Event*

Our in-person RISE event will take place on the Boston campus on the afternoon of April 13. Student presenters should be prepared to share their work live during this event. All RISE posters will also appear in an online gallery.

If you (and all other students with whom you are working on your project) are based outside of Boston or cannot secure time off from a co-op for the event, you have the option to include a poster in our virtual RISE gallery without attending the live event. If you are able, present live!

Do you (and/or another Northeastern student who is working on this project) plan to present during our live event on April 13?

RISE 2023 is presented by the Undergraduate Research and Fellowships on behalf of the Office of the Chancellor. The event is a collaboration between all of the colleges and networked campuses

Thank You
